

German-Southeast Asian Center of Excellence
for Public Policy and Good Governance
— CPG —

The

German-Southeast Asian Center of Excellence for Public Policy and Good Government (CPG)

is an academic institution and think tank engaged in the field of public law and good governance, formed by Thammasat University in Thailand and the German Universities of Münster and Frankfurt am Main and attached to the Faculty of Law, Thammasat University.

We are expanding our research team for Thailand-related academic projects and invite interested candidates to submit applications for several positions of a Research Assistant (part time/ up to three months duration).

The research projects cover the following subjects and fields:

- Reforming Property Rights & Land Titling in Thailand
- Reforming Foreclosure Law & Practice in Thailand

Requirements:

- Holding at least a bachelor's degree in law or related fields. An advanced tertiary student is welcome.
- Native speaker in Thai, good command of written and spoken English
- Computer literacy in use of MS Office/Excel applications
- Flexibility, proactivity, diplomacy, dynamism and enthusiasm
- Able to work as a team member and under tight deadlines

Job description:

The research assistant provides support in research related work of CPG's projects, including

- identifying, collecting, reading, and evaluating written sources (Thai and English),
- documenting research results,
- translating Thai sources into English
- conducting interviews, and
- ad hoc research assignments.

Salary: Local salary

Applications documents shall comprise:

1. A cover letter setting out briefly the candidate's motivation and suitability for the position
2. A completed resume with profile picture
3. A copy of university degree along with transcripts
4. A copy of relevant work certificates (if any)

We offer an opportunity to work in a young, international and high-performing, dynamic team as well as competitive payment. Interested applicants are invited to send the application documents by email to: careers@cpg-online.de

For further information please contact us at careers@cpg-online.de